

Spiga Silver is the ideal type of metal mesh to make curtains and / or panels, that leave the space intact, creating virtual separation and transparency between different environments.

The choice of this material comes from the ability to shade and protect the products displayed in the shop and its composition 100% with stainless steel guarantee of a A1 Class, safe and suitable for application in public application.

LOCATION

Spain

PRODUCT USED

SPIGA SILVER
Spigate