

An original light created by the three suspended elements, made from metal mesh Cangiante Copper and Elegance both produced with copper wires.

This achievement was made possible thanks to the main feature of the wire mesh to maintain the shape given.

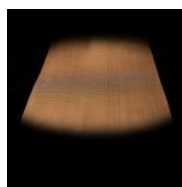

It has been possible to create a sub-minimum perimeter structure on which look directly the mesh, the "cloud" so obtained was suspended on the ceiling using steel cables.

The grazing light gives the composition an iridescent and unique effect.

LOCATION

Australia

PRODUCT USED

CANGIANTE COPPER
Cangianti