

On the Lecco shore of Lake Como, the restaurant "Da Giovannino" has chosen to create internal dividers with Juta fabric to have a see-through effect.

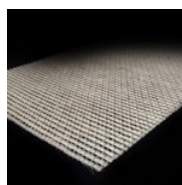

The need to divide the interior spaces in the main room, creating greater privacy, has given rise to these sliding panels, which can be moved as needed.

The strong connection between the jute threads and the ropes of the fishermen creates a connection between the lake, the kitchen and the hall.

LOCATION

Malgrate

PRODUCT USED

JUTA
Lineari