

The choice of metal mesh panels to embellish the environments is quite common, but the result obtained in this Korean restaurant in Paris is absolutely amazing. Brilliance and brightness are just two of the effects obtained with Liner Silver, a light metal mesh, composed of groups of wires with different spacing and intensity, intertwined with a regular weave. The steel wires struck by light create a unique play of transparency and the reflections that are created give shine and elegance to the entire restaurant.

LOCATION

Paris

PRODUCT USED

LINER SILVER
Lineari