

In this Bingo hall of a well-known Canary Island Casino, the gaming room was separated from the reception using Spiga Silver wire cloth panels. Panels with lateral stainless steel finishing have been made and with upper and lower hooks that allow them to be tensioned. The final effect obtained, thanks to the metallic reflections of the steel, is of great impact, moreover the very dense mesh, creates privacy between the players and the arriving guests.

LOCATION

Spain

PRODUCT USED

SPIGA SILVER
Spigate