

To cover the multi-storey car park located in the heart of Ferrara, where the Enel Palace used to be, the architect chose Flexy TP 16x28 fabric, in stainless steel, which was then painted with a copper color. The choice of color was almost imposed, to aesthetically mask the grandeur of the underlying structure, integrating with the historic houses that are right in front of the same parking garage.

LOCATION

Italy

PRODUCT USED

FLEXY TP 16X28
Geometriche